Convicts in Ohio Jail in State of Constant Mutiny

Only Determined Action on Part of Prison Official Prevents Open Outbreak of Violence—Hundreds in "Idle" Cells Want to Make Break for Liberty—Demand Warden's Suspension

Relatives Taking Bodies Of Convicts for Burial

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 24.—With hundreds of Ohio State penitentiary convicts in open revolt tonight, demanding removal of Warden Preston Thomas, prison officials faced the task of preventing violence after one of the most troublesome days in the history of the institution. Developments, as an aftermath of the disaster Monday night when 318 convicts died in fire and smoke while locked in their cells, were rapid. At times it was feared that 3,000 prisoners would break for liberty. Leaders of the men said, however, they intended only "passive resistance" until Thomas' removal. Resistance included refusal to obey orders or to work.

WANT WARDEN SUSPENDED

In the meantime, a proposal to suspend the warden temporarily was placed before Governor Meyer Y. Cooper. Prisoners testified in Governor Cooper's investigation that Warden Thomas ruled the convicts with cruelty and that the prisoners were organized to continue resistance until the warden is removed.

The convict witness blamed Guard Captain John Hall, aged seventy-two years, for the great loss of life, saying he had failed to order release of the trapped men.

In the meantime, relatives of the prison dead continued to remove the bodies from the temporary morgue at the State Fair Grounds. Several unclaimed bodies were to be buried here tomorrow at mass funeral services. Only about half the bodies were claimed.

REVOLT QUIETED

At the prison early this morning, a revolt of several hundred convicts was quieted, but soon thereafter the convicts in the idle house, where practically all cell door locks had been broken, demanded release into the yard. Several hundred gallons of coffee were served, and for a short time the men were quieted.

At dawn plans were made to release some of the soldiers on duty outside, but the order was quickly rescinded and additional troops called when the unruly leaders in the idle house, other cell blocks and the yard urged the prisoners to "take a chance" on a break. For a time rioting was feared.

Even the calm voices of prison chaplains and of the more cool-headed prisoners failed to prevail.

SCHOOL AREAS NOT LEGALLY CONSOLIDATED

Supreme Court Gives Answer to Questions Regarding Steps Taken in Up-Island Districts

NOTICES ARE HELD TO BE INADEQUATE

That the requirements of the Public Schools Act had not been satisfied in connection with the consolidation of the Cobble Hill, Bench, Mill Bay and Sylvania School Districts into the Plantagenet School District, was the ruling given by Mr. Justice Murphy in Supreme Court yesterday.

The court held that a rural school district can, at its annual meeting, legally consider and vote upon the desirability of consolidating with one of more adjoining school districts, provided that the final agreement is given to the voters with regard to the consolidation to be discussed. It further held that in the cases in question proper notice had not been given.

TRADE WITH JAMAICA PROMISING

Mr. Harry Hastings Returns From Tour of British West Indies in Interests of Business

There is a promising opportunity for the development of trade between British Columbia and the Island of Jamaica, in the British West Indies, according to the report which Mr. Harry Hastings brings, following a visit to that tropical colony, during which time he investigated to the fullest extent possible openings. There are, according to Mr. Hastings, certain essential in connection with the building up of that trade, which will require attention before it can be expected that there will be the fullest results reaped.

TRANSPORTATION NEEDS

One of them is the perfecting of the transportation facilities from British Columbia ports to the West Indies. There should also be the construction of a new road.

CREW IS PICKED UP BY OTHER VESSELS

NEW YORK, April 24.—The Radio Marine Corporation tonight picked up a message from the steamship Lexington saying that the freighter Thames was afire off Cape Cod and in Long Island Sound. The crew of twenty-four was reported safe.

The message said the Lexington took off three of the freighter's crew in a lifeboat and picked up six others. A power boat nearby picked up two others, and one of the freighter's lifeboats carried the rest of the crew ashore.

Cause of the fire was not given in the radio message.

The Lexington, which carries freight and passengers between Providence and New York, reported in a second message that after making sure all the other ship's crew were safe, she had resumed to Providence.

Although the messages did not say so, they indicated that some of the Thames' crew took to the water to escape the fire, and were later picked up.

The only steamer Thames listed in shipping records is a small freighter of 500 gross tons owned by Thames River Line. She carried a crew of twenty-two, and operates between New York and points along the Connecticut Coast.

Captain's Island is on the north shore of Long Island, opposite Stamford, Conn.

MONTREAL, April 24.—The Sun Life Insurance Company of Canada and the Confederation Life of Canada have agreed to discontinue issuing new business in Mexico, it was announced here today.

This decision was reached at a conference of officials of the two companies. The Mexican Government demanded that all foreign companies transacting business in Mexico invest the majority of their reserves in Mexican securities. This the Canadian companies refused to do, and their withdrawal followed.

Civil Service Renders Honor to War Heroes At Tablet Unveiling

WITH simple, but impressive ceremony, the bronze tablet erected to commemorate the services of the sixty-four lives in the Great War, was unveiled in the rotunda of the Parliament Buildings last evening. The unveiling was performed by Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Prime Minister of British Columbia, before a gathering of the members of the civil service of the province, members of the navy and the army and returned men's organizations, friends of those who gave up their lives to their country, and the general public.

With the drawing aside of the flag covering the tablet, which rests in one of the corner niches of the rotunda, a dedicatory prayer was offered by Hon. J. Hinchliffe, followed by a minute's silence. While the representative party, drawn from the members of the 16th Regiment, Canadian Scottish, presented arms, the "Last Post" was sounded by a bugler from the same battalion. As the last notes of the call, with its sad associations, died out, the band of the Canadian Scottish, posted outside the building, struck up "God Save the King," and the ceremony was concluded.

The tablet bears the simple inscription:

"In memory of those men of the Civil Service of British Columbia who gave their lives in the Great War, 1914-1918. There appear representations of the three services, the navy, the army and the air on the face of the tablet."

His Honor the Administrator, Chief Justice J. A. Macdonald, was

INDIAN SITUATION BECOMING INTENSE

Riots, Demonstrations and Arrests, Accompanied by Bloodshed, Daily Growing in Violence—Gandhi Campaign Taken Advantage of by Fierce Hillsmen—Troops Fire on Massing Crowds

Revolt Getting Outside Control of Indian Head

(Associated Press)

BOMBAY, April 24.—With riots, demonstrations and arrests steadily increasing in India, the most disturbing feature of the situation tonight was the spread of trouble to Peshawar, key city of the Northwest Frontier. Latest reports said three soldiers were killed and eight wounded in the rioting there yesterday when troops turned machine guns on demonstrators to quell the disturbance. Twelve natives were killed. Business is at a standstill and the city bears the appearance of an armed camp.

DISQUIETING REPORTS

Other less authoritative accounts say trouble is spreading on the frontier itself with rioting at Kohat and Charsadda. Troops are said to have been moved into the disturbed regions of Risalpur and Nowshera, and the guard has been increased in Kohat Pass, which leads through the mountains to Afghanistan.

No serious trouble was reported from the larger cities but tension continued, particularly in Calcutta. There the situation revolves around the native population that J. M. Sen Gupta was dead following mistreatment by guards after a hunger strike.

A communique issued today said Lieutenant-Colonel Denham White, acting chief medical officer, visited the prisoners and reported Sen Gupta to be normal except for high blood pressure from which he was suffering when admitted to the jail. The communique added that Subhas Chandra Bose, another political prisoner who had been reported ill, was normal except that he complained of a headache sustained from a fall in the jail.

THINKING NEW PLAN

A report came from Navsari tonight that Mahatma Gandhi was thinking out a new plan in his campaign of civil disobedience. The nature of the plan was not disclosed.

RELATE STORY OF DEATHS OF TWO TEACHERS

Girls Give Details of Accident to Mr. Hyndman and Mr. Lothian's Attempt to Rescue

CORONER DECIDES NO INQUEST HELD

NORTH VANCOUVER, April 24.—An amended version of the tragedy which marred a holiday picnic at Lynn Creek on Wednesday was related to Coroner H. Dyer, of North Vancouver district this morning, when five eye-witnesses told how two Carleton school teachers, Mr. John A. Hyndman, eighteen, and Mr. F. M. Lothian, twenty-two, lost their lives in the swirling waters of the mountain stream.

Miss Dolly Wilson, sixteen, declared that Mr. Hyndman was climbing a small cliff near the creek when he lost his footing and slipped into the water. A number of girls of the picnic party saw the accident and hurried to tell Mr. Lothian.

Mr. Lothian ran to a log nearby in order to cross the creek to Mr. Hyndman's assistance, the girls said. The teacher ordered them not to cross the log, which was slippery, and they went around by the bridge, some distance upstream.

STUNNED BY FALL

Dolly declared they saw Mr. Hyndman float around a bend in the stream about forty yards north of the falls. He appeared to have been stunned by his fall, for he made no effort to swim.

"I did not have any keys," the veteran guard said. "I am an old man, seventy-two years old, and have long been in this prison business. I think my accusers are just passing the buck."

"I saw smoke and the next thing I knew a brand of fire was falling. Then I told the guards to release them."

"I have been called 'hard boiled' but I don't think any person will say I haven't been a fair man."

Bishop Says Secular School Is Pernicious Lie

By GEORGE HAMILTON
Canadian Press Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, April 24.—Monseigneur Condon, Bishop of Oullins, in a pastoral letter to the faithful of his diocese today, describes the secular school, he wrote, as a disastrous utopia and a pernicious lie. "In principle," the bishop adds, "the matter is to speak nothing of God nor of religion. That secularization (laicism) is nothing but surreptitious introduction of irreligion in the teaching of the young."

Bishop Condon pays tribute to teachers, who, realizing the importance of a discreet word of opportune counsel and the power of example, are wonderfully performing their duties as educators. Their number is limited. Their action is not free. The books they are obliged to put into the hands of their pupils are dangerous, often pernicious and diabolical, he declares.

"Thus is," the letter concludes, "unknown to them and against their will, the evil done around them."

MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING OF TWO WOMEN

Prominent in California Society, Both Are Found Dead in Midst of Great Luxury

THINK MURDER AND SUICIDE HAPPENED

(Associated Press)

LAGUNA BEACH, Cal., April 24.—In a tragedy, apparently of murder and suicide, the bodies of Mrs. Guy Bates Post, a stage star of two decades ago, and Mrs. Doris Murray Palmer, formerly of Chicago, were found in the fashionable bungalow of the latter here late today.

Mrs. Post had died from a bullet fired into her brain from the mouth. Mrs. Palmer was shot through the back, the bullet striking her heart.

TWO EMPTY SHELLS
Near the body of Mrs. Post lay a revolver, apparently the silent witness to the fatal shooting. Two empty shells were in its chamber.

After a preliminary investigation, authorities from the Santa Ana sheriff's office expressed belief it was a simple case of murder and suicide. They believed Mrs. Post had shot Mrs. Palmer and in turn taken her own life.

A possible motive was offered in a quarrel between the women yesterday over a luncheon to which Mrs. Palmer had been invited.

Post was not on the guest list. Authorities, however, were hesitant to believe this assertion and expressed the opinion that a deeper cause underlay the tragedy.

The bodies were found by a messenger who had been sent to the house when friends in San Diego had been unable to obtain an answer to repeated telephone calls.

Mrs. Post, four months ago, was divorced from Mr. Guy Bates Post, the noted actor. Mrs. Palmer formerly was the wife of Dr. Clinton Foster Palmer, of Chicago. Before her marriage, she was Doris Murray, of Waukegan, Ill. She was about thirty-two years of age.

NO SIGN OF STRUGGLE
The investigation disclosed that the shooting occurred without a struggle. Furnishings of the living room, where the bodies were found, were in immaculate order. The fact that Mrs. Palmer was shot through the back led to conjecture on whether she had been slain unaware.

In society circles of the fashionable artist colony here the two women were known as "good friends." Mrs. Palmer had lived here about two years and a half. She had come here shortly after her divorce to live with her mother in their luxurious home on Sunset Hill. Mrs. Post is in Honolulu on stage engagements.

NEW ZEALAND DELEGATION NOW IN CITY

On Saturday afternoon the party will leave for Vancouver and from there will make a side trip to Powell River before boarding the train. They will stop at Banff and Lake Louise, later moving to Calgary. Arriving at Montreal on May 10, they will sail six days later for London aboard the Duchess of York.

The London conference has been called primarily to discuss matters relating to news communication by telegraph, cable, wireless and other means, and will be attended by delegates from all over the British Empire. Several New Zealanders and a large number of Australians left

Winnipeg on Sunday papers, an augmented Saturday edition taking their place. As the result of a recent award, all newspaper men now must have at least one-half day without holiday and then receive three full days. In the largest city a man must have at least one-half day without holiday or before coming back to work when his day is finished.

"Throughout New Zealand there are Sunday papers, an augmented Saturday edition taking their place. As the result of a recent award, all newspaper men now must have at least one-half day without holiday or before coming back to work when his day is finished."

"At noon today the press delegates will be guests at a luncheon to be given by the other at the Empress Hotel. At 6:30 o'clock the Provincial Government will be their hosts during dinner at the Empress."

Hon. R. Rogers Ready to Fight South Winnipeg

(Canadian Press)
WINNIPEG, Man., April 24.—Hon. Robert Rogers, former federal Minister of the Interior, today announced he will permit his name to go before the approaching convention of South Winnipeg.

The convention of the nominating convention will be set next week and will be the first formal move in Winnipeg of Conservatives in anticipation of Dominion elections.

As Minister of Public Works in the Manitoba Legislature, Mr. Rogers served Manitoba for eleven years before assuming a Cabinet post under Sir Robert Borden at Ottawa in 1911. He was defeated in South Winnipeg constituency in 1912 by Mr. J. A. McDermid, present Liberal member.

Peshawar remains idle. Police are experiencing great difficulty in handling the crowds; giant balloons swag along the streets exuding fierceness, and mutterings and curses are heard on every side. Reports from Kobat indicate trouble there, but the Afghan frontier is for the time being at least tranquil. Extra guards have been stationed at the Khyber Pass.

The rioting in the province, according to the authorities, may have started on the pretext of the Gandhi movement, but has little relation to the Hindu campaign. The Pathan inhabitants of Peshawar are Moslems and have been for centuries. Only last night Mohammed Ali, who is regarded as the leader of India's Moslems, issued a statement attacking the Gandhi agitation and fearing its success would leave minorities at the mercy of the Hindus.

HOSTILE TO EUROPEANS
The other cities of the country are comparatively quiet for the moment, though there is a general feeling of hostility towards Europeans as growing worse, and inflammatory speeches continue to be made.

V. J. Patel, Speaker of the Legislative Assembly of India, has resigned his post. This action has been expected, however, ever since the arrest and incarceration of his brother, who is one of Gandhi's chief lieutenants.

Britain Keeps Eyes On Keen Contest on Empire Trade Issue

By THOMAS T. CHAMPION
Canadian Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON, April 24.—The by-election in West Fulham has developed into a first-class political event, and through the issue of Empire trade, brought in by the Conservative candidate, "West Fulham has become the spearhead of the Empire trade crusade," declares Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express today. Nevertheless, the 60,000 voters in the division are taking their responsibilities calmly. They have to choose between Sir Cyril Cobb, Conservative, who represented the constituency from 1920 until his defeat last year; Mr. J. W. Banfield, Labor, and Mr. J. MacLaughlin, Communist.

LONDON SUBURBS
West Fulham is one of London's nearer western suburbs, where the good man of the family mostly comes home to do over the evening paper and listen to the radio while his wife puts the children to bed. But there was a big audience when Lord Beaverbrook spoke last night on behalf of the Conservative candidate.

"On May 6 your message will go out to the nation and the Empire," Lord Beaverbrook told the voters. "If you fail there will be despair in many hearts at home and far away across the seas."

Nothing was further from the minds of the Empire Free Traders than the intention to go into the Dominion to break down tariff walls, but to protect their secondary industries, Lord Beaverbrook declared. But Canada is buying fifteen million tons of United States coal, practically all of which could be produced in Britain, he added.

For England by way of the Suez Canal and Mediterranean Ocean. Mr. L. J. Berry is secretary of the party and Mr. R. J. Gilmour, chairman. As yet no agenda for the coming conference has been issued.

"Journalism in New Zealand is carried out under vastly different conditions than in Canada," said Mr. Berry in summing up conditions "down under."

On Christchurch, Dunedin, Auckland and Wellington scribes work under what are known as district awards, but in the country conditions are a little different. Reporters are divided into three grades: senior, general and junior; the minimum salary per week for a senior man being £8, for a general £7, and for a junior £6.

"An arbitration court composed of a judge, representative appointed by the proprietors of a newspaper and representative selected by the writers, sets all awards and straightens out difficulties which occur from time to time," continued Mr. Berry.

"Each district has its journalists' association and working hours in New Zealand are forty-eight each week, with one half-day off. A writer may work two weeks with no holiday and then receive three full days. In the largest city a man must have at least one-half day without holiday or before coming back to work when his day is finished."

"Throughout New Zealand there are Sunday papers, an augmented Saturday edition taking their place. As the result of a recent award, all newspaper men now must have at least one-half day without holiday or before coming back to work when his day is finished."

"At noon today the press delegates will be guests at a luncheon to be given by the other at the Empress Hotel. At 6:30 o'clock the Provincial Government will be their hosts during dinner at the Empress."

PLANTAGENET S. D.
The proposal to consolidate had been considered as early as 1920, Mr. Pepler said, and had been revived in 1929. The School Act required that the district school boards could apply for consolidation if at a regularly called meeting a majority of the voters declared in favor of the advisability of the consolidation. At the annual meetings of July 13, 1929, resolutions in favor of consolidation were passed by the following votes: Cobble Hill, 14, against 1; Birch, 7, against 4; Mill Bay, 9, against 4; Sylvania, 6, against 3. The school boards had then made application and the consolidated district of Plantagenet had been created by Order-in-Council on August 12. Trustees for the new district were elected on August 25. On September 14 a meeting was held to protest against the consolidation. The school board had been authorized to spend $4,500 and to issue a loan for $12,500 for the building of the consolidated district.

TWO QUESTIONS
Protesting residents had contended that the annual meetings held on July 13 could not deal with the advisability of consolidation, and that proper notices had not been sent out. The department had therefore referred the following questions to the Supreme Court.

(1) Could the former four rural school districts at their respective annual meetings held on the 13th day of July, 1929, properly consider the advisability of uniting with one or more adjoining rural school districts and agree to such a proposed union, under the Public Schools Act?

(2) If so, were the notices calling the said meetings in such form as to satisfy the requirements of Section 12 (1) and 30 of the Public Schools Act?

WHAT "CONSOLIDATION?"
The notices sent out were read and put in evidence by Mr. Pepler. In all cases they said that the subject of "consolidation" would come before the meeting.

"What consolidation?" asked the court. Mr. Justice Murphy went on to say, did not state explicitly or specifically what sort of consolidation was meant, or what was to be consolidated. How many school districts and which school districts it was proposed to combine with should have been stated. A vague proposition or vote on the general advisability of "consolidation" was a very different thing from decisive action on a specific proposal affecting the pockets of the ratepayers. The attendance

The girls saw Mr. Lethian plunge into the stream ten or fifteen yards above the falls. He was unable to resist the rush of the mountain torrent and was carried over the ten-foot drop, they say. They saw him grasp a rock in the pool below, but he was unable to maintain his hold and disappeared beneath the foaming waters.

The other girls whom Coroner Dyer interviewed—Misses Wilma Stevenson, Betty Taylor, Irene Elliott and Josephine Barnes, corroborated Dolly Wilson's story.

They added that one girl had slipped into the water fifteen minutes earlier. She had been in a shallow portion of the stream and was helped out without difficulty, they said.

Miss Irene Elliott explained to the coroner that she also fell into the water while standing on a rock endeavoring to watch Mr. Lethian. She was not in danger, however. Mr. Lethian's body was recovered by Chief W. W. Hemmingsway and Constable Charles Cunniff, of the district police, two hours after the tragedy, but that of Mr. Hyndman has not been found, despite continued dragging operations.

Coroner Dyer declared that no inquest will be held.

Pimples Itched So Could Not Sleep. Healed by Cuticura.
"My face was covered with pimples and blackheads. The pimples were rather small, hard and red, and spread to my neck. They itched so badly that I could not sleep at night, and when I scratched them they scaled over and were very sore. The trouble lasted about a month. My doctor recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment, so I purchased some, and after using one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." TO SUPERVISE PLAYGROUNDS THIS SUMMER

Mr. Vivian Shoemaker Tells Rotary Club of Y.M.C.A. Plans for Community Service

CLUB HOSTS TO GROUP OF BOYS

The Victoria Y.M.C.A. proposes to undertake a real systematic playground supervision here during the Summer months. Mr. Vivian Shoemaker, boys' work secretary of the Y.M.C.A., stated yesterday at the luncheon of the Rotary Club, at which the club's group of boys at that institution were the special guests.

Mr. Shoemaker said that permission of the civic parks committee had been given to the Y.M.C.A. was enlisting the support and co-operation of citizens generally and organizations particularly interested in the development of the boys and girls of the community.

"We intend to make an endeavor to elevate the general run of play and the character of the boys and girls through the city at large. Our staff will give its services in this scheme and we will welcome the assistance of other men in the programme," he stated.

The speaker said "We want to show what real supervised play can do for the youth of the city. We propose to set up an extensive programme of games and contests in the various playgrounds, over which a close supervision will be kept. We hope to receive the support of the Rotary and kindred organizations in this enterprise," Mr. Shoemaker concluded.

INVITED GUESTS

Members of the All-Rounders group in the Y.M.C.A., who were guests at the meeting, included Allan Pearce (president), Harry Coates, Lloyd Ralph, Clifford Harris, Bernard Deville, James Smith, John Newbigging, Bill Parker, Philip Jackson, Joseph Amachi, Alan McLean, Pat Brien, Roy Berryman, James Gower, Horace Moyes, Jim Moyes, Eric Moyes, Edward Pears, George Price, Roy Bishop, James Berryman, Jimmy Baker and Henry Harris.

Mr. Walter Tuck, chairman of the Rotary Club boys' work committee, directed the programme and outlined briefly the work which the organization was performing in the interests of underprivileged children. Rotarian Harold Timberlake said glasses had been supplied by the club during the year to twenty-two children, whose parents were unable to afford them.

Rotarian Frank Shandley, the Rotary Club's leader of the group, and Mr. Vivian Shoemaker, were presented with gifts by the boys.

John Newbigging stating how much the boys appreciated the interest which these two men and the Rotary Club had taken in their welfare.

GROUP'S ACTIVITIES

Allan Pearce, president of the All-Rounders group, briefly outlined the activities of the Rotary boys at the Y.M.C.A.

Jimmy Baker rendered a vocal solo, and John Newbigging contributed a pianoforte selection, being received with hearty applause. Rotarian Robert R. Webb led the gathering in community singing.

Mr. John A. Macdonald, district sales manager of the British Columbia Telephone Company, was introduced by Rotarian W. B. Wilson and was given a warm greeting.

President Alfred Carmichael appealed for a large delegation to represent the Victoria Club at the annual district Rotary conference which will be held on May 11, 12, 13 and 14, at Spokane, Wash.

Final Touches to Tariff Bill Are Now Being Made

(Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 24.—Republican leaders of the Senate and House, discussed with President Hoover at a breakfast in the White House the procedure to be followed with the Tariff Bill agreed upon by the congressional conferees.

After the conference, participants began preparation of an official statement of what was discussed. The three Republican tariff conferees from each House, Speaker Longworth, Chairman Snell of the House rules committee, House Leader Tilton and Senator McNary, of Oregon, assistant Republican leader of the Senate, attended the meeting.

Each declined to comment on leaving the White House.

GIRL BANDIT AIDS DARING HOLDUP

Holds Attention at Teller's Cage While Companion Thug Gets Grip Upon Cash

(Canadian Press) TORONTO, April 24.—Walking into the Glendon and Dundas Streets branch of the Bank of Commerce this afternoon, a masked bandit flourished a shotgun, discharged it twice and herded the staff into the bank vault. After scooping up the money available, approximately $3,000, the robber ran to a motor car in which two companions were waiting and made his escape.

Later information revealed the bandit was accompanied by a girl, who was young, pretty and well dressed, and who carried a revolver. The girl entered the bank slightly ahead of the bandit, ostensibly to cash a cheque. While she was at the wicket, the bandit drew the shotgun from under his coat and shouted, "Hands up!" Then, with the obvious intention of frightening the bank staff, he fired from the hip twice, the shots going through the partition of the teller's cage, but not injuring anyone.

The girl apparently entered the waiting bandit car while the bandit was gathering the cash.

PLANET OR COMET NOT YET DECIDED

New Body Discovered at Ottawa Observatory Is Still Possible to Be a Comet or a Planet

(Canadian Press) OTTAWA, April 24.—After making further investigation and deductions, Dr. Meldrum Stewart, director of the Dominion Observatory, declared today that the body photographed here six years ago was not Planet X, but either a comet or an entirely new planet.

In a statement given to the Canadian Press, Dr. Stewart said: "It appears that the object discovered at the Dominion Observatory can be identified as still possible to be a comet or a planet."

When the announcement of its discovery was made, it was suspected that the two objects might be identical. Information received since as to the inclination of the orbit of the Lowell planet appears to establish the fact that in 1924 when our plates were made, the position of that body would be slightly farther to the south than the object found here. The distance of the two objects make them appear to be of the same order, and their brightness now widely different. The latest one may be a comet, or possibly an other new planet, or some similar object."

REUNION TO BE BIGGEST OF KIND

Two Thousand Gunners at Least Expected to Attend at Kingston in May

The regimental reunion of the Royal Canadian Artillery, the oldest unit of the permanent force in Canada, which came into being in 1871, is expected to prove the biggest occasion of its kind ever attempted in this Dominion. It is known that there are about 8,000 ex-members of this famous regiment still living in Canada, some of the older ones being original members of "A" Battery School of Gunnery at Kingston, or "B" Battery School of Gunnery in Quebec, while others saw service with one of the special service batteries in South Africa or with the R.C.A. Brigade in France.

The city of Kingston and the regimental headquarters are expecting at least 2,000 men to attend, and the available accommodation for visitors to the Limestone City will doubtless be taxed to the utmost. Special rates have been granted by the railway companies; the Kingston City Council and Chamber of Commerce have made financial grants towards making the event known, and the Kingston committee, headed by Col. J. N. S. Leslie (retired) has already arranged a two-day programme for May 23 and 24, which should prove one of the historical events of the city.

The secretary of the committee, Col. C. E. Long, who passed through every rank in the permanent force, from gunner to colonel before retirement, is a secretary of the Kingston committee, and it is to him that all inquiries regarding the event should be addressed.

COURTENAY IS INTERESTED IN COLD STORAGE

Manager of Local Plant, With Marketing Commissioner, to Address Growers May 3

GORDON HEAD PEOPLE WILL PLANT BEANS

The growers of Courtenay district, having heard of the advantages of the cold storage plant at Oden Point, are anxious to get further information, and have requested Mr. H. G. Brown, president and manager, to visit there and address them on Saturday next. As Mr. W. W. Duncan, marketing commissioner, is desirous of visiting the Courtenay section, and found it inconvenient to arrange to be there on April 26, the date has been set for May 3, when the facilities of the local plant for handling farm produce will be explained in detail by Mr. Brown, while Mr. Duncan will deal with marketing conditions in general.

Following the meeting at Gordon Head on Tuesday night last, when Messrs. H. G. Brown, W. W. Duncan and others addressed the Gordon Head Fruitgrowers' Association on the advantages of modern refrigerating methods and the proper grading and marketing of fruits and vegetables, the committee appointed Messrs. Walker, Wood and Renouf, met Mr. Duncan, who is assisting in furthering their efforts, and arrangements are being made to purchase a quantity of bean seed, a number of growers having decided to grow beans for the off-season market, put up in suitable cartons, after hearing of the possibilities as outlined by Mr. Brown.

OUR NEW ZEALAND CONTEMPORARIES

If in the course of the daily round and common task today any of the people of Victoria should happen to meet strangers who appear somewhat above the common order of womanhood and mankind, the women more than ordinarily beautiful and well and tastefully dressed, the men obviously of a superior type intellectually and physically—let the people of Victoria, noted for early rising and diligence in business, pause for a moment while we introduce the strangers within our gates to them. The visitors are representatives of the press of the far-off sister island, of New Zealand. Make a lowly obeisance to them and pass upon your several ways.

The moulders of public opinion from "down under" are on their way to the seat of Empire in London. They are passing through Canada, where they will make notes of what they see and be entertained as they pass upon their way, and be joined by representatives of the Canadian press, who will also take part in deliberations which may have considerable effect in moulding the destinies of the Empire—and there are many people of pessimistic views who sincerely believe that the destinies of the Empire require considerable moulding at the present time.

There are no pessimists in Canada, of course, for, like New Zealand, Canada is not confronted with a crisis of any kind at the present time, although the present year may prove a momentous year in our economic history—for we are facing a general election and a prospect of disruption of our business relations with the United States. The first will do us no harm and may do us much good. The last may have a disturbing effect for a time, but in the end it will also do us good. It will make us more dependent upon our own resources and convince us of the necessity of cultivating trade relations with the sister Dominion of the Empire, particularly with the great Dominion in the Southern Seas, with the Mother Country, and with all nations willing to do business with us upon mutually advantageous terms.

The press conference which will take place in London shortly will be followed a month or two later by an Imperial Economic Conference in the same place. We look forward with hope to the results of both those important gatherings.

If it is true that the British Empire is facing serious problems of a political as well as an economic nature, the Imperial press representatives will have important business on their hands, and we have confidence in their capacity to deal with that business.

We have been told by other visitors from New Zealand that climatically and physically the island in the South is very much like our own loved island in the North and that there is no part of the world in which New Zealanders feel more at home than they do here. So The Colonist extends a cordial welcome to the newspaper men from the South and trusts that their visit to Canada may be thoroughly profitable and enjoyable.

YET A LITTLE MORE SLEEP

Gandhi, who is going to liberate oppressed India through the agency of a dish of salt, says it is not so much the political system as the cultural system of the West he hopes to overthrow. The East is opposed to competition in anything. It dislikes hurry and bustle. It desires to rest for long periods and to dream in a half-conscious state. Life in India is real enough, but it is not earnest. The West is all hurry and competition. It is in a state of perpetual warfare between jarring interests. India wants peace. It wants peace even in revolution—and if there should be violence and bloodshed as a consequence of revolution, that is deplorable, but it is fate. The Indian revolution is based upon a dish of salt because salt is one of the prime necessities of the people of India, for the climate of India is hot and salt is a preservative against swift putrefaction and decay. Gandhi does not want the Government to compete with the people in the making of salt, nor the competition of England in the manufacture of cloth. He wants the people to procure their own cloth by primitive methods. Gandhi believes Western civilization is hurrying to its doom and that Eastern methods must ultimately dominate the earth. And so the problem of India is difficult, because what can be done with a nation of dreamers.

PARLIAMENTARY PROSPECTS

The Premier of Canada is home again after a holiday in the sunny island of Bermuda. We trust Mr. King's holiday has restored his health to its normal state, for during the session of Parliament there were indications that the state of mind of the Premier was not normal. That explosion of petulance and irritation during which the leader of the Government proclaimed that not a nickel would be given for the relief of unemployment in any province which had fallen to such low political estate as to tolerate a Tory Premier was something altogether unusual and startling in the annals of Canadian Parliamentary institutions. None of us will ever hear or read the like again. Consequently the Premier needed a holiday, for he is facing a situation which may be productive of further mental irritation. His Minister of Finance is said to be preparing a budget which will upset all the traditions of Liberalism. Or rather it is said that his Finance Minister is putting the finishing touches on a budget in process of preparation by the former Finance Minister, Mr. Robb. Mr. Dunning is a Free Trader by tradition. Mr. Robb was a Protectionist by experience and conviction. To what extent the budget of the Protectionist Finance Minister will be adopted by the Free Trade Finance Minister no one will be permitted to know until the speech is actually delivered; but the fact is noticeable that all the Free Trade newspaper supporters of the Government are beginning to hedge and are preparing their readers for a budget which will be at least partially protective in its principles. More significant still, some of the Progressive and agrarian members of Parliament have been saying that the time has come when the industries of Canada must be granted a measure of protection against foreign importation. There may be some interesting developments before Parliament is finally prorogued or dissolved.

TEMPEST IN MUNICIPAL POT

These are tempestuous times in the great and good city of Toronto. The tempest may be merely a newspaper blast. It may blow over shortly and be forgotten as similar storms have arisen and blown over other places and been forgotten; but in the meantime the stormy winds do blow, the deep thunders roll and the brilliant lightning flash—around the heads of the editorial and letters from correspondents denouncing the duplicity and the cupidity of the Mayor, the Controllers and Council.

The storm centres around the action of the Council in increasing their indemnities from a comparatively insignificant figure for a big and growing city to twelve hundred dollars. The Toronto City Council, like another City Council, which need not be specified, discovered a few months ago that it was not endowed with the power to increase the salaries (or rather the indemnities) of its members. Such limitations of powers were considered irksome and unreasonable, so an appeal was laid before a sympathetic member of the Ontario Legislature, who engineered a resolution through the House giving the Council the powers it coveted. Fortified by this resolution, the emancipated Council voted a general increase in the salaries of everybody elected by the votes of the people. The editors and correspondents maintain that such a thing should not have been done without consulting the people who employ them and pay taxes to pay them. The leader in the salary grab movement says something which is always said under similar circumstances—that "the laborer is worthy of his hire," and if he does not help himself when he has the power his employers will never help him. Most employers may be like that, but most employees have not the power to help themselves when they see a surplus lying around, and if there does not happen to be a surplus lying around, make provision for a surplus in their estimates.

The denouncers of the act of the Toronto Council declare there will be a day of reckoning; that the conduct of the grabbers will be remembered when the day of the next election arrives; but the memory of the public is as short as a winter's day in Ontario. The present burning question will probably be but a dead and forgotten issue long before the dawn of another election day.

George Bernard Shaw says men are always thinking of production and leaving distribution to take care of itself. The Irish sage is wrong, as other sages have been; or at least his observation is not universally applicable. The Wheat Pool of Canada has not been leaving distribution to take care of itself. It has been trying to take care of distribution, and distribution has declined to be taken care of. The Canadian Wheat Pool has also been trying to take care of production by limitation, and, according to accounts from the Prairies, the wheat growers are trying to grow more wheat this year than they ever grew before.

More coal deposits have been found in Northern Ontario. If those Easterners continue finding new resources, Ontario will soon be as independent of outsiders as British Columbia.

THE CHANNEL TUNNEL

It is to be supposed that public opinion—on whose movement the whole scheme turns—will spend $30,000,000 for nothing except the removal of sea-monsters from the tourist's weekend in Paris? There is imperative need for vision in this matter. The tunnel will react more powerfully upon the general economic condition of Britain than any other project since the Suez Canal. It will make this country a part of the European system. Today we can contribute no more than an impotent philanthropy to the Continental efforts to improve the world's commerce by the power and example of British policy will be felt from the Baltic to the Mediterranean. These are the sort of considerations to be set against the head-chalking of puerile vested interests—London Observer.

Letters to the Editor

Editor of the Daily Colonist:—

Sir:—The British play, "Piccadilly," by Arnold Bennett, is a sample of English plays, which some of the public are demanding, then I trust we shall have American ones. It was one of the most degrading spectacles of low dancing halls and without a single redeeming point in the whole play. One can only be surprised at an author of his reputation writing so vulgar a type of play.

INDIAN CAR DRIVERS

Sir:—There is a matter of grave importance, re automobile driving, which I think should be taken up without delay.

The Indian, as most of us know, is in the eye of the law, a minor. He is held in minor so long as he conforms to tribal conditions and lives on a reservation.

Now he is driving automobiles on all our roads and carries no responsibilities in the way of motor insurance. He is not a member of the automobile associations or others interested to take up, as the Indian is getting more numerous on our roads. Some of them are making good money as longshoremen, but you could not get a cent of recompense from them for damage to yourself or your car. This is not right.

Civil Service Renders Honor to War Heroes At Tablet Unveiling

In attendance, as well as all the members of the Government who were in the city, were the Hon. Mr. Tolmie, after raising the Union Jack which covered the memorial, then turned over to the keeping of Mr. John H. Macdonald, the keeper of the Book of Remembrance, which contains the full list of those who fell.

In performing these two ceremonies, Dr. Tolmie said:

"It is my privilege now to unveil this memorial to those of the Civil Service of British Columbia who gave their lives in the Great War, and as we place this wreath upon it so in spirit do we place a wreath upon the grave of each one of these brave men, who are perpetuating their memory in the 'Book of Remembrance' to the keeper of the archives, to cherish and to guard, so that posterity may read the names inscribed on its pages."

A dedicatory prayer was offered by Hon. J. H. Macdonald, himself a veteran of the war, which was followed by a minute's silence, the sounding of "Last Post" and the playing of "God Save the King" by the band.

For the occasion the exterior of the Parliament Buildings was lighted up, while the band of the Canadian Battalion played a programme of selections during the time of the gathering of the crowd. Members of the Provincial Police, under the command of Inspector T. W. S. Parsons and Staff-Sergeant Robert Owen, were posted at the entrances to the building, and the crowd, which was directed by the City Police, kept charge of the direction of traffic from the street to the grounds of the buildings.

The dedicatory service was rendered by St. Paul's Troop, Boy Scouts, under command of Major Wise. These boys assisted the committee of the civil service in carrying out the arrangements, and in their uniforms were on duty during the ceremony.

About the rotunda of the building were draped Union Jacks and Canadian ensigns, while in the centre of the rotunda the Speaker's throne was similarly draped, while ferns and palms were banded about the steps leading to it.

THE COMMITTEE

The committee for the civil service, which has charge of the arrangements, was made up as follows: Hon. J. H. Macdonald, Messrs. H. Naden, P. D. Walker, P. Phillips, N. Baker, R. Hancock, J. H. Macdonald, J. G. Aiken, J. Fisher, R. Morrison, J. Good, F. H. Davey, J. L. Watson, H. Nelson and H. A. Tomlin, with J. L. Corbett, treasurer, and Mr. W. H. Currie, secretary.

FASTS MANY DAYS DYING AFTERWARDS

Kept Calendar Marked With Quotations Showing Length of Time of His Abstinence

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., April 24.—A calendar on which he had checked many days apparently of fasting, was found enclosed in a Bible in the shack, where Fred Pentland was found dead in an isolated spot, ten miles from the city, yesterday.

The calendar had been placed on a chapter dealing with the size of Noah's Ark, and on it was written in ink, "Forty Days' Fast," together with other quotations. All indications were that Pentland had himself fasted for a considerable time at least.

He was last seen alive in November. He was thirty-one years old, unmarried, a former member of the Irish Constabulary, and came to Canada in 1921.

establishment of cold storage facilities for the receiving of the fresh products from here. Another essential matter in connection with the trade, which Mr. Hastings stresses strongly is that British Columbia business men in their dealings with the people at the other end must be prepared to give what is agreed to be furnished, and there must be a prompt filling of orders when these are given.

On this latter point Mr. Hastings, who has just returned to Victoria after several months spent on Jamaica and in transit to and from the island, had some very distasteful dealings with business men in straightening out failures on the part of some British Columbia shippers, who had not complied up to the letter with the requirements. This feature, in the opinion of Mr. Hastings, is of the greatest importance if satisfactory trade relations are to be built up with this province.

AVAILABLE LINES

He found the people of that island anxious to trade with British Columbia. There are many lines in which this province should be able to develop a lucrative line of trade. If the business is looked after, while Jamaica is a country which seems to get a great part of its daily needs in tin cans, there is also in the opinion of Mr. Hastings, the chance to get into the supplying of many of the needs of the island in the line of fresh fruits and vegetables. The facilities exist for the carrying of these in cold storage in Kingston, with cold storage facilities in the shipping.

Mr. Hastings says that he found that the people of Jamaica are anxious to trade with Canada. There is every disposition on the part of the people there to give the preference to Canada over foreign countries, in supplying the requirements of the island. At present a valuable concession exists in the matter of preference, and it is the desire of the Jamaicans that there should be an economic relationship established between that country and Canada.

The efforts of Mr. Hastings were, of course, devoted in the main to the extension of trade with this province. He found that Eastern Canada was now afforded direct connection in a transportation way by C.N.R. steamers. Under the treaty between Canada and British West Indies there is a preference allowed in the matter of duty of 50 per cent reduction on a list of articles with a still greater reduction which makes really a free list on other articles.

PREFERENCE TO EAST

While in Jamaica Mr. Hastings found that the treaty was interpreted as applying only when the goods were transported between the two countries of Canada and Jamaica without final being made at United States or other foreign ports in transit. This worked all right with Eastern Canadian shipments because of the fact that the trade was carried on by Canadian bottoms owned by the Canadian National service, which ran direct without stopping at United States ports.

In the case of British Columbia, however, the situation was different inasmuch as the only service which could be utilized was an American one, which made calls at British Columbia ports, and then at various points on the United States Pacific Coast, going by way of the Panama Canal to Kingston, Jamaica.

He was informed that the call at American ports would interfere with bringing into effect of the advantages which were to be derived from the trade treaty conditions. Mr. Hastings contended that this could only be interpreted to take away the privileges in cases where there was a transfer of the goods while in transit. The interpretation of the authorities, however, was the other way, but a coincidence while he was in Jamaica allowed a test to be made, and an intimation to be obtained contrary to the accepted one, and in line with the contention of Mr. Hastings.

A TEST DECISION

It happened that there was an announced intention on the part of some of the Canadian vessels making calls at Boston en route for the purpose of facilitating the passenger traffic.

When this rumor appeared Mr. Hastings again made an appeal to the authorities as to whether this would not interfere with the trade carried by these vessels on the Atlantic Coast. Differences of opinion existed, and finally Mr. Hastings had an appeal made to Ottawa for an interpretation, when the decision was given that the call at a foreign port would not interfere with the privileges if there was no transfer of the shipment.

This decision is one that will be of considerable advantage to shippers from here, in view of the fact that only American vessels can be utilized in making the shipments at present, until such time as the Canadian Government sees fit to put its own vessels into the service from the Pacific Coast, as on the Atlantic.

DOORS AND SASHES

Right at the present time there is the opportunity for trade being established along stable lines in shipping from here to the Pacific Coast, and doors and sashes. Mr. Hastings had offers to enter into contracts to build sashes and doors in this line regularly. Fruit from the temperate zone is prized in this West Indian Crown Colony, and there is a market for fish, which of necessity must reach there in a cured form, owing to the tropical character of the country.

If strawberries could be shipped from here in the frozen form, and so carried in Kingston until demanded for use, he believes there would be a ready sale at a good price. Potatoes were selling at a very lucrative price, and apples also sell well, and at a good price. These are some of the lines which he felt a good trade could be developed. Shingles from this province were also included in the demands.

MILION POPULATION
There are 1,000,000 people in Jamaica, and among these there is a very fair proportion that demand the best in various lines. Cannot be used to a large extent, and there is every reason for British Columbia catering to this trade with advantages that the customs arrangements provide under the treaty.

The Canadian National Railways is putting up a hotel in Kingston, and while Mr. Hastings was in the colony, there were constant rumors that the Canadian Pacific Railway had acquired property with the object of erecting a hotel and golf course there. Eastern Canada is paying a great deal of attention to the country in the South, and he believes that British Columbia should make an effort to invade the market, offering on a much larger scale than at present.

HOMEBOUND JOURNEY

The trip to Jamaica was made by Mr. Hastings by way of automobile for a large part of the way. He went by the Pacific Coast to San Diego, and then motored across the continent as far as Louisiana, where he took steamer to Jamaica. Coming home, he traveled by way of Bermuda and landed at New York, making the trip across by motor from there with stops on the way at Detroit, Chicago and other points, the trip from New York occupying twelve days.

Connected with the placing of the tablet in the Parliament Buildings, commemorating the services given to their country by sixty-four men of the civil service, who paid the supreme sacrifice of war, the "Book of Remembrance," which has been compiled and placed in the Archives Department, is a most striking feature.

Arrangements are to be made for the placing of this somewhere in the buildings, so that it may be inspected by the public. In order to do this, it will be arranged in due course that a new page will be turned over each day, or each week, so that all may see it by visiting the buildings. The book will be kept under glass and locked, so that it may not be injured in any way.

Notice of the arrangements in connection with the display will be given in due course, when finally settled.

The book itself is a work of art, done by members of the civil service staff. The binding was executed in the bindery of the King's Printer, being in leather. The pages of the book represent the work of Mr. R. L. Sheldon-Williams, who served overseas and who is in the service. Each page is embellished in colors, artistically decorated by hand. These emblems consist of three service rifles of the Lee-Enfield type, as used in the war. The butts of these rifles rest upon a wooden design of a maple leaf.

The rifles were granted the committee by the Militia Department, and will remain a part of the memorial of the war.

The plaque forming the memorial tablet was designed by Mr. W. H. Currie, of the civil service, who, like Mr. Sheldon-Williams, was a member of the C.E.F.

INQUEST OPENS ON TRAGEDY AT ALBERNI HALL

Inquiry Is Adjourned After Evidence of Three Witnesses, Including Police Sergeant

REVOLVER BY RECURRENT BODY

ALBERNI, April 24.—The inquest upon Mr. Martin M. Stephens, late city clerk of Alberni, whose body was found in the ruins of the City Hall on Wednesday morning, was commenced here today, and adjourned to tomorrow after three witnesses were heard.

Dr. A. R. Wilson, who performed the autopsy, testified that the bullet had entered the right temple, the flesh was burned at that point and there was evidence of powder. The revolver had been held either at the point of entry of the bullet or within an inch or two.

Organs were congested, due to smoke and death was directly due to suffocation, as in his opinion deceased with the temple wound would have lingered some hours.

Mrs. Stephens, the widow, said her husband had been bright and cheerful during Tuesday evening, before going to the Alberni Council meeting. From that meeting he returned at about 11:30 o'clock and said he would be returning to the hall next morning, as he had seen suspicious characters lurking in the neighborhood. He set the alarm clock for 4 o'clock and went out at that hour. She did not see him alive again.

Sgt. Wood, Provincial Police, spoke of responding to a summons at 5:45 o'clock and found the City Hall burning. He recognized the body at the vault as that of Mr. Stephens. By the body was a revolver. An examination of the vault showed a spent bullet and an empty cartridge. These were of similar character to those in the revolver, the magazine of which contained five cartridges and one in the chamber.

In answer to a jurymen he said he had not seen any suspicious characters in Alberni during Tuesday.

The effects on the body of Mr. Stephens, in addition to personal articles, showed his equipment as a constable, which was in good order and had not been disturbed.

The coroner then adjourned the inquiry.

VERDICT GIVEN FOR DEFENDANT

JUDGMENT IS HANDED DOWN IN HEMING VS. B.C. BOND CORPORATION, LTD.

Mrs. Heming Loses Action for Damages Claimed as Due to Delayed Sale of Stock

Judgment in favor of the defendant was handed down yesterday in the county court by Judge Langman in the suit brought by Mrs. Heming against the B.C. Bond Corporation, Limited.

The plaintiff's case, the judgment recites, was that on January 19, 1928, she gave, through her husband, an order to sell 1,000 shares of Big Missouri stock at the price of $1.50, and that although on January 20 the stock reached a price of $1.50 and higher, yet defendant did not sell her shares or any of them, and she therefore said they were negligent, and, as the stock went down in price after January 20, she claimed damages. Plaintiff sold her shares through the defendants in July, 1928, at sixty-eight cents per share and did not commence the action for damages until January 25, 1930.

Three questions of fact were involved in the case, the judgment observes, namely: (1) Was the order given on January 19? (2) Did the defendant transmit the order to their Vancouver branch? (3) If they did transmit it, did the Vancouver representatives use reasonable diligence in endeavoring to sell the shares? The length of time which had elapsed before the action was commenced and the necessary effect of this upon the memory of witnesses made it more difficult to arrive at satisfactory answers to these questions. It seemed probable, however, that the date on which the order was given was January 20, and even if it were given on January 19, it was not clear that the order could have been executed on January 20, January 20 was a day of great confusion on the exchange and its facilities for transacting business were overtaxed. Mr. Hunning had testified that, if reasonable diligence had been exercised some at least of the plaintiff's stock could have been sold at $1.50, but the court could see no good reason for thinking he was right.

Messrs. Brown and Woodburn were counsel for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Lawson and Davies for the defendant.

MR. JOHN R. CLARK CALLED BY DEATH

Victoria Rotarians Pay Tribute to His Memory at Weekly Club Meeting in Empress Hotel

MR. JOHN R. CLARK

Victoria Rotarians, at their weekly meeting yesterday in the ballroom of the Empress Hotel, expressed their profound regret at the death of Mr. John R. Clark, of Vancouver, who was for a number of years an active member of the Victoria Rotary organization.

Speaking on behalf of the clubmen, Rotarian Frank J. Sehl paid tribute to Mr. Clark, and referred to his lengthy association with the Rotary movement.

"Jack Clark was a Rotarian at heart as well as in name," Mr. Sehl declared. "He was vice-president of our club at one time, and served several terms on the board of directors. He was at all times an enthusiastic worker for Rotary, and he will be particularly missed in the Spellingbinders' organization, with which he was so actively identified."

Members of the club stood in silent tribute to Mr. Clark's memory, and instructed the secretary to send the sincere sympathy of the Rotarians to the relatives of Mr. Clark in their bereavement.

Wedding of Mussolini's Daughter Held in Rome

ROME, April 24.—Benito Mussolini, Premier and Dictator of Italy, this morning gave his daughter Edda in marriage to Count Galeazzo Ciano, secretary of the Italian Embassy at the Holy See and son of the Minister of Communications.

The wedding party, which was crowded with dignitaries, was held at the church of St. Joseph, which is the parish church of the

The groom followed escorted Donna Dachele Mussolini, while at the last came the Premier himself with Countess Ciano.

Witnesses for the bride were the Duke's brother, Arnaldo Mussolini, and Prince Giovanni Torlonia; for the groom, Dino Grandi, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Count Devacchi, Italian ambassador to the Holy See.

THINGS SEE BRIDE

The brilliant assembly crowded to the aisle as the couple and parents walked from the church, all bowing and smiling. The bride and groom entered an automobile and drove to St. Peter's, where they worshipped at the tomb of St. Peter, before beginning their honeymoon.

The wedding and attendant ceremonies were without ostentation, in keeping with Premier Mussolini's policy of keeping his private life and family as much in the background as possible.

HANDSOME GIFTS

The bride is nineteen years old and the groom twenty-seven.

Assisting the parish rector in the nuptial service were Father Giovanni Arregui and the Canons of St. John Lateran. Despite discouragement by Premier Mussolini there were many gifts. Pope Pius sent a solid gold rosary and with it his benediction. The Fascist party sent a brooch, the Senate a Burano lace veil and the Chamber of Deputies a tea service.

TODAY'S RECIPE

CURRIED EGGS—Make a white sauce by cooking together a tablespoonful of butter and flour until they bubble, adding a teaspoonful of curry powder to the flour and putting in half a teaspoonful of onion juice as soon as the butter is hot; add half a pint of milk, and, as soon as the sauce is smooth and thick, lay in four or five hard-boiled eggs, cut in thick slices, sprinkling it at the same time with a quarter of a teaspoonful of salt. Stir very little so that the eggs will not be broken. Serve on a dish surrounded with boiled rice.

MR. FRED PARFITT HONORED BY CHOIR OF EMMANUEL

In compliment to the choir at the Emmanuel Baptist Church, and to the choir leader, Mr. Fred Parfitt, in particular, the official boards of the church were hosts last Tuesday evening at a delightful social gathering held in the school room.

The programme was entirely informal and included games and guessing competitions, elocution readings by Mrs. Malcolm and songs by Mrs. Norman Baker and Mr. S. Woodard. Mrs. George Andry accompanied at the piano. During the evening Mr. Parfitt, who is shortly to leave on a trip to England, was the recipient of a vest-pocket kodak, presented to him by the members of the boards as a slight token of appreciation of his services as musical director and to wish him a pleasant journey and a safe return.

"A Night in Agua Caliente" Was Big Night for Charity

"A Night in Agua Caliente" registered a big night for Victoria Lodge No. 2, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, in the local home of the order last night, when some two hundred merry-makers had a good time and incidentally aided the Elks' relief fund, the purpose for which the affair was organized and successfully carried out.

Featured on the programme were the airplane races, and these caused excitement in plenty. Supper was served and dancing indulged in. The committee in charge of the affair was as follows: Messrs. D. Croston (chairman), H. Edwards, W. Knowles, H. Latham, D. B. Gregson, E. Jones and S. Shrimpton. The committee was assisted by several members of the club, who operated the concessions and helped in many ways.

HOSTS AT PARTY

Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Barton were hosts in their home, "Hopedene," George Road, to a progressive whist party, which numbered nearly sixty guests, on Monday evening. Thirteen tables were in play. The prize winners were Mr. George Gray, Miss Edith Hewitt, Mr. H. Thompson and Mrs. Masters. The rooms were beautifully decorated with tulips, daffodils, cowslips, carnations and roses. After the card games, refreshments were served by the members of the ladies' club of the Progressive Thought Temple, following which community songs were sung to the accompaniment played by Mrs. Fletcher. A feature of the evening was the entertainment supplied by Mr. Gray, which kept the guests in convulsive laughter. Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Fletcher, Miss Parks, and Dr. Barton also contributed to the musical programme.

AZALEA WINS AS BEST BLOOM

Annual Spring Bulb and Flower Show Is Held at Metchosis
Hall

MACEDONIAN IRIS ON VIEW

METCHOSIN, April 24.—Once more the annual Spring bulb and flower show, held in the Metchosis Hall on Wednesday afternoon, under the auspices of the Metchosis Women's Institute, was a great success, notwithstanding the losses most of the gardens suffered owing to the unusually heavy frosts during the winter.

The president, Mrs. M. E. McVicker, introduced Mrs. Bonavia, who formally declared the show open and distributed the prizes. Mr.

John Hitchcock, F.R.H.S., who was responsible for the judging, stated that the exhibits were exceptionally good, and they did indeed present a splendid appearance.

Among the noncompetitive displays entered, the tulips grown by Mr. C. E. Whitney-Griffiths were worthy of special mention, also the entry from the Quarantine Station, which was effectively arranged with a large basket of dogwood and wisteria in the centre, surrounded by a great variety of flowers, including a large bowl of roses.

MACEDONIAN IRIS
There was an interesting exhibit of dwarf khaki Macedonian iris, the bulbs originally being sent from Salomon, where they were found blooming on the banks of Lake Doiran, now growing at Albert Head. A very fine azalea, grown by Mr. Beckingham, took the prize for the best bloom in the show. A chrysanthemum in full bloom also attracted a great deal of attention and gave evidence of Metchosis's favored climate.

HEALTHY EXHIBIT
The health exhibit, in charge of Mrs. Taylor, proved interesting. The school lunches were judged by Miss Kelly, Mrs. A. D. Ellwood winning the prize for the best balanced lunch. Mrs. F. G. Waide managed the home cooking and candy stall, which was entirely sold out, with a profit of about $25. Miss E. Milne sold ice cream, the cones being popular with the children. The tea room, which was in charge of Mrs. Ferguson, and Mrs. Charles Helgesen, conveners, was crowded throughout the afternoon. Misses Ann Mallock, Nora Helgesen and Gwendyth Meredith-Jones serving.

The list of special prize winners follows:

Collection of mixed daffodils—Mrs. Howard.

NEW ALTAR USED ON EASTER DAY

Altar Furnishings and Decorations
Enhance Beauty of Worship at St. John's, Duncan

DUNCAN, April 22.—The beauty of worship was greatly enhanced on Easter Day in St. John's Church, Duncan, by the use of the new altar given by the W.A., which Ven. Archdeacon E. P. Laycock had dedicated on Palm Sunday in the presence of a large congregation. The new altar and its furnishings, designed by the Archdeacon after the traditional English pattern, presented a very fine appearance with its reredos of black and gold and riddell posts surmounted by gilded angels. This pleasing result was due to the skilled workmanship of a master craftsman, Mr. Chris. Dobson, who gave voluntarily of his labor. The excellent symbolical carving of vine and grapes above the altar was executed by Mr. W. S. Gibson, of Shawinigan Lake.

On Easter Sunday a very large number of communicants partook of the Sacrament at the new altar. The church, which was filled to capacity four times, was beautifully decorated by members of the W.A. with yellow daffodils, white narcissi and creamy dogwood, which blended perfectly with the white and gold of the altar frontal. The font was adorned by the Girls' W.A. with masses of Easter lilies. At their bright and happy service in the afternoon the children brought 300 eggs for the patients in the King's Daughters' Hospital.

The musical part of the services throughout the day was well rendered by the choir under the leadership of the organist, Mr. W. A. Willett. The soloist at the Holy Eucharist was Master P. Booth, of the Cathedral Choir, who was formerly a chorister at St. John's. The veteran and well-beloved clergyman, Rev. F. G. Christmas, in spite of having passed his seventy-sixth birthday, assisted the vicar, Rev. Arthur Bischofberger, at both celebrations of the Holy Communion.

MANY VISIT COWICHAN BAY FOR HOLIDAY

COWICHAN BAY, April 24.—Beautiful weather prevailed over Easter Sunday and many visitors took advantage of the sunshine to enjoy the fishing on the bay. The country is at its best, every shade of green mingling with the white of the dogwood.

AIR STILL FREE

We live beneath a sea of air miles deep, and although there is an abundance of fresh air in the world for everybody, yet the fact remains that many people in cities are often literally starving for plain fresh air. This is not because fresh air is lacking in the cities, as the air is always more or less in motion and the stale air is quickly carried to the country and replenished by fresh air, but is because inhabitants of cities usually do not have the stimulation or ambition to replace the stale air for their lungs with clean fresh air.

Even when driving in the country most people find that motoring is very tiresome because they sit all humped up for several hours within a closed car where the fresh air is quickly used up, and there is a tendency to breathe lightly while driving which brings about a state of oxygen starvation within the body. Also there is usually a nervous tension while driving, so that one may not breathe properly during the entire trip. The fact that any driving done in modern traffic places the passengers in an atmosphere of gasoline fumes is an additional reason why they do not breathe deeply. In an effort to avoid the odor of gasoline fumes one may inhale very lightly.

Air is needed at all times. It is a fundamental necessity far more immediately important than food or drink. We can hold our breath for a short time, possibly a minute, and then, whether we wish to or not, we breathe. No one has ever been able to commit suicide by shutting his mouth and holding his nose. The body is automatically equipped to prevent this form of suicide, as there is a very sensitive spot in the brain which makes us breathe again when the amount of carbon dioxide in the blood becomes too great. This is a wise provision of nature transcendent over the will which starts the in and out motion of respiration again.

Fortunately no man has ever been able to command a monopoly of the air. It is present alike for rich and poor, as free in the hovel as in the palace. But like most free things, we do not appreciate it properly.

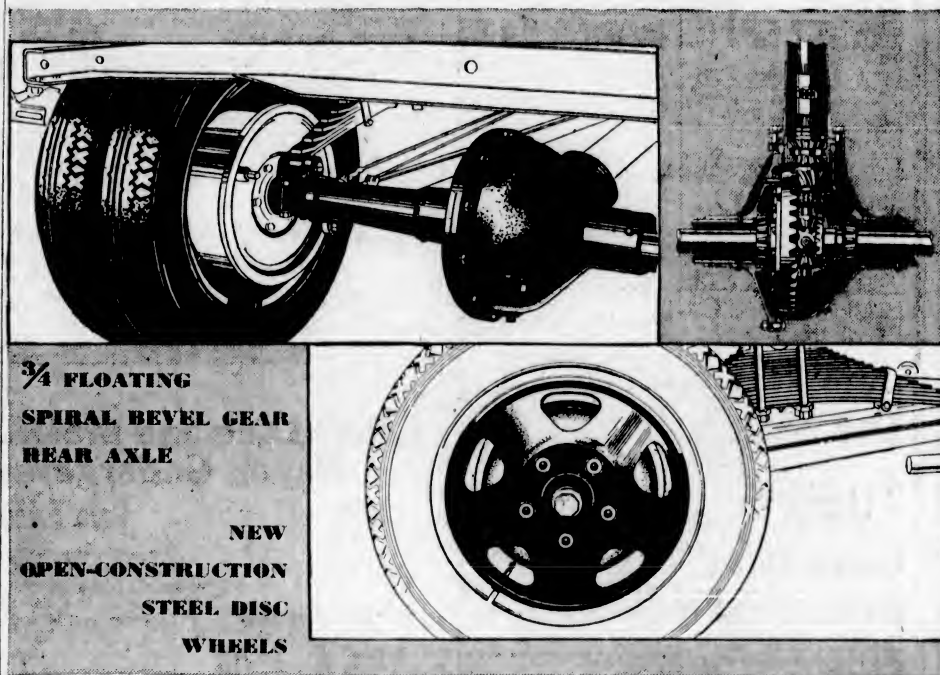

Air is composed of a number of different elements, among which nitrogen is the most abundant constituent is oxygen, which is about twenty per cent. The air also consists of about 79 per cent of the total. The next most abundant contains water vapor and carbon dioxide, as well as some other gaseous elements, such as argon, which means "the newcomer," and is a good conductor of electricity; krypton; xenon, meaning "the stranger," as it is present only in about one part in twenty million; radon, actinium, and thoron.

It is good for us that the oxygen of the air which we use is diluted with these other elements, for were it not we should dance happily about for a short time and then die of oxygen intoxication.

FORD TRUCK

3/4 FLOATING
SPIRAL BEVEL GEAR
REAR AXLE

NEW
OPEN-CONSTRUCTION
STEEL DISC WHEELS

THE FORD 1½-ton truck offers you long, reliable hauling service at remarkably low cost. Many features of the chassis combine to make it a value far above the price. Important among them is the new rear axle, which has a spiral bevel gear of special design, with straddle-mounted pinion. The housing is unusually strong. Because of the three-quarter floating type of construction, the axle shafts serve only to turn the wheels, without carrying any of the weight of truck or load.

The new wheel and tire equipment is a feature which you will find both convenient and economical. Dual rear wheels can be installed at small additional cost. Balloon tires of one size are used throughout with the dual equipment, so that all six wheels and tires are interchangeable all around. Only one spare need be carried. New open-construction steel disc wheels are used.

Brakes on the front wheels have been enlarged to the same size as those on the rear, providing increased braking area and a high degree of safety. Brake-rods assure positive control. A simple and effective adjustment is provided on each wheel.

Other features which add to the value of the Ford truck are the efficient four-cylinder engine, which develops 40-horsepower at 2200 r.p.m.; the 4-speed transmission, which gives a wide, flexible range of speed and power; the torque-tube drive, which relieves rear springs of all but their normal function of absorbing shocks; and the sturdier front construction. The front axle is twice as strong as formerly. The front spring is heavier, with more and wider leaves. The front radius-rod is heavier, and king-pins, wheel bearings and thrust bearings are larger.

The Ford truck is available in three distinct types—a speedy, attractive light delivery, a standard 1½-ton truck for general haulage, and a heavy-duty 1½-ton model. Prices are low, in accordance with established Ford policy.

COLUMBIA San Francisco's famous water-front was reproduced at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios for one of the big scenes in "Wild Orchids," Greta Garbo's latest starring production, which is now showing at the Columbia Theatre. So realistic was the set, according to Sidney Franklin, the director, that he and the cast expected the San Francisco fog to roll in at any minute.

VARIETY For sheer entertainment it would be hard to surpass the sparkling comedy-drama, "Toby on the Spot," which the Toby Leitch Players are presenting at the Variety Theatre this week. This engrossing story of modern New York life abounds in exciting drama and sentimentality with joyous comedy. Every night this week it has been greeted enthusiastically by delighted audiences. In addition to the drama, which reveals an apparent pillar of society in his true colors as a crook, there is a charming love romance running through the story.

DOMINION "Burning Up," Richard Arien's first starring picture, which opened its three-day run at the Dominion Theatre last night to loud and prolonged applause from the audience, is an all round good thriller. "Burning Up" is the story of a likable, ambitious young man, unwittingly mixed up with a group of ne'er-do-wells, chiefly engaged in crooked promotions. Lovely Mary Brian enters the scene and captures the boy's heart. Then he discovers the unethical and criminal actions of his business companions and their scheme for defrauding the girl's father of a large sum of money. How he defeats their plans and wins the girl is a thrilling story to which only the picture itself can do full justice.

ROYAL There are only three theatres more opportunities of seeing what is considered the best comedy that the Gordon McLeod Players have presented during the season. In "The Man From Toronto" there is both fun and reality, particularly fine acting by all the cast and a most charming setting. Next week, Monday and Tuesday the theatre has been let, to the Kiwanis Club on Monday and the Arion Club on Tuesday. On Wednesday night the Players will present one of the funniest farce-comedies ever seen. Both in London and New York this play had a very long run. This is also a play in which the well-known comedy talent of the players will have full scope.

ALBERTA TO POLL THURSDAY, JUNE 19

Farmers' Government of Province Calls Election With One More Year to Serve

EDMONTON, April 24.—The Alberta provincial election will be held on Thursday, June 19. Official announcement of the date was made this morning by Hon. George Hoadley, acting Premier, speaking for Premier Brownlee, who is at present in Vancouver.

The U.F.A. Government still has one year of its five-year term to serve, but the calling of an election has not been entirely unexpected, as there have been rumors for some time that this would be done.

The working out of all details of the election machinery will await the return of Premier Brownlee from the Coast next Monday, said Mr. Hoadley. The Premier will ask the Lieutenant-Governor to dissolve the Legislature immediately upon his return and the actual machinery for the election will be set in motion at that time.

Nomination day will be June 9, ten days before the election. From the statement of Mr. Hoadley, it is evident that the main appeal of the U.F.A. Government will be based on the successful termination of negotiations for the return of the natural resources.

The standing of the parties in the House at the present time is as follows: Farmers, 43; Liberals, 7; Labor, 6; Conservatives, 4.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT

The following statement was issued by Hon. George Hoadley, on behalf of Premier Brownlee in announcing the election:

"In keeping with its promise during the recent session, that if an election were to be held this Summer ample notice would be given, the Government today announced its decision to hold an election this Summer with polling day fixed for June 19.

"The Government confidently believes the agreement for the transfer to the province of its natural resources will be ratified at the present session of the Dominion House. This agreement, following the completion last year of the sale of the Northern Railway, brings to a close the last of the major problems facing the province in the past nine years. In selecting the person and determining the policy of the administration of the natural resources a new set of problems of no less importance faces the province for the next few years.

"From an administrative viewpoint therefore, this year marks the close of one and the beginning of another era, and is an appropriate time for an appeal to the people. The people are entitled to say to what Government they wish to entrust the responsibility of administering the natural resources, and in order to allow the administration an undisturbed term in assuming this task, considers it advisable that an election should be held at once."

ANSWER TO YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE

The Story Behind the Play

By J. J. GELLER

"JEWELS OF THE MADONNA"

Since Puccini's passing, Ermanno Wolf-Ferrari is regarded as the foremost contemporary Italian composer. Wolf-Ferrari was born in Venice during 1878; his father was a German portrait painter and his mother was an Italian. As a boy, he displayed an extraordinary memory for retaining tunes.

A photographer who was a friend of his parents, gave him piano instruction, but his father insisted that a course in painting would be more desirable, holding that painting was the most rational of all arts. Accordingly, young Wolf-Ferrari was sent to an art school in Germany, but his mind was not on the brush and palette. Secretly, he composed fugitive pieces. Learning that his son was clandestinely wedded to music, the elder Wolf-Ferrari consented to a change of studies and entered him in a Munich conservatory, where he remained for two years.

Returning to Venice, the young man plunged into composing professionally, and his first effort was an oratorio based on a work of Dante's. He next directed his attention toward the operatic field. Today the composer's international reputation rests upon the "Jewels of the Madonna." It isn't so much that the plot of this opera was actually based upon a true incident in the lives of two Neapolitan lovers that caused it to become the foundation of a tragic theme by Wolf-Ferrari, but the fact that the composer had written three operas previously of the utmost delicacy, only to see them fail miserably at the box office. Reversing his style, Wolf-Ferrari planned to offer the public a real blood and thunder spectacle which might bid for wider audiences than heretofore. And so he descended upon the story that every native of Naples accepted as true, of the disappointed author who stripped the image of the Madonna of its jewels in order to bestow them upon his love. Later, troubled by his conscience, he restores them to the image, remorse conquers him and he commits suicide.

Wolf-Ferrari reasoned that if the melodramatic school of opera demanded the lurid and sensational tales, he would rise gallantly to the occasion. This plot contained all the elements for such an opera and he forthwith sketched the story to two librettists who agreed to furnish a complete text. This new opera necessitated a complete change in the musical style of the composer, and it is reported that within a comparatively short time after the finished libretto was in Wolf-Ferrari's possession, he already carried the music of the first act in his mind before writing a single musical note upon paper.

The finished opera was aptly titled "Jewels of the Madonna." It sought to outstrip "Pagliacci" and "Cavalleria Rusticana" in sordidness and brutality. To make amends for this, Wolf-Ferrari, at no sacrifice to his individuality, filled the score with Neapolitan folk songs which he combined with his original contributions.

Of all cities, this typical Italian opera, "Jewels of the Madonna," enjoyed its world premiere in Berlin in 1911. This came only as a last resort when the numerous operatic organizations in Italy refused to entertain its production, deeming it inferior to their standards. As a result, the composer dispatched the music score and libretto to the Berlin Opera House, where it was immediately selected for production. It was accepted by the first night audience as well as the succeeding ones wherever it was presented. In America, it was first given by the Chicago Grand Opera Company during 1912 under the direction of the composer.

English Cup Final

Averages Favor Arsenal to Capture Trophy—90,000 Tickets Issued—Thousands of Fans Will Be Disappointed
By P. J. WOODLEY

Association football is the world's leading game, the Football Association is the world's greatest sporting organization, and the annual competition for possession of the English Football Association Cup is the most gigantic sporting event in the world. Forty-five years ago the legislation of professionalism in England was created, since which time the popularity of the sport at home and abroad has progressed by leaps and bounds.

The great wheel, the spokes of which aptly represent all those teams which took part in this season's competition, commenced to revolve on September 7, and not until the final whistle signifies the end of the series will its long and exciting journey terminate. Huddersfield Town and Arsenal are the remaining spokes, and tomorrow they will line-up on that beautiful playing surface at Wembley before a record metropolitan crowd, each prepared to play its last game in this occasion.

Will Arsenal let it go to Yorkshire as they did to Wales in 1927, or will Huddersfield allow it to go to High-bury as they did to Blackburn the following year? Only once have Arsenal won through to the final, and then, three years ago, they became linked up with letting the cup go out of England for the first and only time.

AN IDEAL FINAL
What promises to be the most successful cup final for many years, the most successful from the standpoint of fitness and experience, will take place tomorrow in London. From an accommodation viewpoint disappointments will continue to predominate until such time as an enclosure can be found to satisfy the demands of all those who wish to see it. Over 90,000 tickets have been issued, and more than a quarter of a million dollars have been returned to unsuccessful applicants.

Trying to exploit the trap once too often, Cope went too far up and appealed, while Roscamp ran right through to score.

WEDNESDAY'S LAPSE

In the present semi-final tie at Old Trafford, Manchester, on March 22, a misunderstanding befell the team from the cutlery centre. When will footballers in general, and professionals in particular, fully realize that the referee's whistle controls everything that appertains to the successful conclusion of a football game? Huddersfield lost no time in setting down to business, and Jackson early proved troublesome. Sheffield were, however, the first to score, and held the lead until nearly half-time. Then Lewis Huddersfield's centre forward, in endeavoring to collect the ball, appeared to handle but, playing strictly to rule, Jackson carried on unchallenged to score a simple goal and tie the score. Many errors can be overlooked during the hectic play of cup semi-finals, but it has many times proven disastrous to allow a player in possession to continue while opponents are vainly appealing for an imaginary or accidental offence.

If Huddersfield Town re-enter Wembley tomorrow with an advantage, Arsenal need not fear its terrors. In addition to the possession of such a brilliant marksmanship as Alec Jackson, Huddersfield enjoy the services of Goodall, said to be the best right fullback in either England or Scotland today. As many as six of their players have had experience in Wembley's peculiarly exacting ordeal. Wilson, their centre half and captain (thrice), Smith (twice), Goodall, Jackson, and Kelly, have been there with Huddersfield, while Campbell was present as a particularly successful opponent of the Yorkshire club in the winning Blackburn team two years ago.

Arsenal, this season's spectacular club, whose opening league game it was the writer's privilege to witness at Highbury on August 31, when Leeds United effectively held them until half-time and then let them run away and get four goals, were at Wembley three years ago. Then they were beaten by a fortuitous goal due to their goalkeeper's lapse. Seven players who figured in that final have assisted in the ties this season, while David Jack, who visited Victoria with the English team as a member of Bolton Wanderers, knows Wembley even better, having successfully captained England against Scotland on its accurately-marked surface as recently as three weeks ago.

Can it yet be safely said whom will win the cup?

ROYAL PATRONAGE

Royalty has often graced the final game of this huge sporting event. The first cup final attended by a ruling monarch was the game between Burnley and Liverpool, on April 25, 1924, at the Crystal Palace, when His Majesty King George V presented the cup and medals to the winners at its close. The King and Queen, accompanied by the Duke and Duchess of York, saw Huddersfield beaten by Blackburn Rovers by three goals to one two years ago.

The last final in which a metropolitan team participated was the first Football Association Cup final played at the Imperial Stadium at Wembley on April 28, 1923. Stripping of the barriers prevented an accurate statement being made, but the official return was that 90,527 passed the turnstiles and 35,527 ticket-holders were also admitted. Possibly 150,000 spectators were present on that occasion. It is scarcely possible to exceed that number this season.

League engagements have brought the cup finalists together twice this season. On December 14 at Highbury, Arsenal trounced Huddersfield by two goals to nothing, and last Saturday at Leeds Road, Huddersfield, there was a drawn game of one goal each.

A fourteen-year-old supporter of Leicester City writes in a recent issue of The Athletic News, illustrating this remarkable coincidence: "In 1928, Leicester City's last home game was with Blackburn Rovers, that year's cup winners. Last year the last home match was with Bolton Wanderers, again the cup winners. This year the last home match is with Arsenal. Is this a good omen for the London club, or will the 'third time' prove fatal?" Leicester City's last home game in 1928 records a six goals to nothing victory over Blackburn Rovers; in 1929 it was a six to one trouncing Bolton Wanderers received, and last Monday afternoon, Arsenal performed at Fribert Street and enjoyed an equal share of twelve goals. Congratulations are extended to Mr. Tom Crow, of Leicester, on whose shoulders has befallen the greatest honor to which English referees can aspire, and he will tomorrow preside at Wembley over the destinies of two great teams in his usual scientific manner.

RISE IN COST OF EDUCATION
IS DISCUSSED

science, and the growth of technical schools all over the Dominion.

"One can well argue," the speaker stated, "that these changes will be costly, but I ask you which is the better policy—to maintain a system which is costly and yet only partially effective, or one which is more costly but tremendously more effective? High costs can only be justified by results."

WHAT ARE THE FACTS?

The speaker inquired, "What are the facts? How is our system meeting the demands of modern life? Are the boys and girls leaving our schools better equipped in character, ability and outlook to take their places in our great growing nation? These are the questions that trustees must answer."

when talking of the rising costs of education.

"Have we as leaders sufficient imagination to see that Canada needs the best there is in every citizen? Not long ago General Smuts said 'Canada is glorious in her youth. I wonder what she will be in maturity?' I maintain that our youth will answer that question, and what that answer will be will depend on the effectiveness of their education," Trustee Hebbden asserted.

Continuing, Trustee Hebbden said: "In British Columbia the financing of our public schools is a matter of considerable local concern. During the past decade the local authorities have paid two dollars to every one spent by the province for public education. Statistics show a tremendous increase in the total sums spent annually on education. Critical eyes watch our high schools, school boards are sharply criticized, by-laws to provide money for capital expenditures are turned down. The mill rates of municipalities, cities and districts are quoted and the proportion of school taxes to the whole are frankly condemned.

"The question of fees for higher education is also of concern. Do we hear the death knell of free education?

CONDITIONS HAVE CHANGED

"Let us search for a basis of fact from which to approach our problem. It is futile to compare present day costs with those of twenty or thirty years ago. Conditions have changed. So has the value of the dollar. Comparisons of the mill rate of the various cities, municipalities and districts differ widely. The basis of taxation is not similar. Some tax improvements, others do not. Where improvements are taxed the percentage varies from 25 to 50.

"Total costs of education do not tell a complete story. Variations in enrolment, in average attendance and in grade distribution when comparing one centre with another over a period of years are all factors deserving of consideration. Local conditions and local control vary too. It would be possible though difficult to accumulate and analyze all these data and when we finished we would have some interesting facts. Such a survey has not been attempted here. A quicker, if more inaccurate method of ascertaining a starting point from which to approach our problem, is this:

"The annual reports of the department show the total sum spent annually on education and the respective amounts paid by the province and the localities. By deducting the university grants from the total and dividing the remainder by the average attendance we get the average complete total cost of elementary and secondary education in the province expressed in per capita terms.

PER CAPITA COSTS

"The per capita costs to the province are also set out in the reports and by deducting this from our total per capita cost we get a figure which roughly expresses the per capita cost to the localities. Please do not place too much importance on these figures—they are averages—and I am using them to illustrate a point.

"Here are the figures for seven years:

	Total	Province Locality
1921-22	77.82	35.70 42.12
1922-23	77.82	35.70 42.12
1923-24	77.82	35.70 42.12
1924-25	77.82	35.70 42.12
1925-26	77.82	35.70 42.12
1926-27	77.82	35.70 42.12
1927-28	77.82	35.70 42.12

"Examination of these figures would lead us to believe that after all educational costs have not soared as rapidly as is generally thought. The figures fluctuate within a margin of $7.63 per capita but do not look as alarming as the total sum figures.

"Please note the relationship of municipal contributions to those made by the Province.

DEMAND INCREASING

"Today there is an increasing demand for secondary education. We are a complex society living in a highly industrialized age. Parents have discovered the inadequacy of a grade school education (Grades I to VIII). Every province in Canada has felt this demand. In British Columbia we find that in 1927 there were (13,853) over five times as many enrolled in our high schools as there were in 1913 (2,680) and over ten times as many as there were in 1908 (1,471). This increase is quite out of proportion to the increase in population.

"Here is an important point from a trustee's point of view. Prices of services and materials bought by school boards are controlled by market conditions. Supply and demand are the governing factors. It is true that the readiness or otherwise of school boards to pay prices demanded will in turn affect market prices in subsequent transactions.

"I believe that most school boards administer their schools efficiently. The members are human and make mistakes which might easily be costly but generally speaking school boards consist of serious-minded men and women anxious and able to be of real service to their community.

"Of course vision is needed. Trustees, like teachers, must recognize the trend of the times. Their outlook must be broad enough to view education as a matter of national importance. They must see it in its entirety," Trustee Hebbden concluded.

The teacher asked Tommy to write an essay on the Battle of Hastings. This is what he wrote: "William the Conqueror told his archers to shoot where the English were thickest, so they shot their arrows into the air and they fell on the Englishmen's heads."

FIFTY YEARS OF CONSTANT ENTERPRISETHE DRILLER

The oil driller hopes for the best—and is always prepared for the worst.

He works weary months watching the drill bite down. If he hits oil there is a brief thrill when he comes in. But many times he only makes a hole in the ground.

Imperial Oil men have drilled in the Arctic where the bare hand laid on steel takes away a patch of skin. They have drilled in Peru and Colombia, where the sun is like a sword. They have drilled in Alberta, winter and summer, to establish a Canadian supply.

Imperial has searched the continent for oil because it wants the best. That is why it has pipe lines through South American swamps—ships on the Atlantic and Pacific feeding its great seaboard refineries.

For fifty years Imperial Oil has been meeting new needs of transportation and industry. Because it has met each need with new enterprise and perfection, Imperial has become a great company—serving every corner of Canada—ranging the world in its work.

Fifty years of constant enterprise are in the products Imperial Oil sells today.

Marvelube is Imperial's finest motor oil.

Imperial 3-Star and Imperial Ethyl are its best gasolines.

Which means that nothing finer can be put in your car.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

IRELAND TO AID FARMERS
The Ministry of Agriculture of Northern Ireland has just announced that the Government will provide loans to farmers for the purchase of livestock, including poultry. It is understood that the purpose of the loans is to aid farmers who desire to increase the number of livestock on their farms. The plan provides for the repayment of the loans in four annual installments, the first being December 31, 1931. Applications must be received by the ministry by September 30. It was also announced that the plan, inaugurated last year, of short term loans for the purchase of seeds and artificial fertilizers, will be continued this year.
